

Food Chain Performance Assessment

1-4. Place the following key words on the appropriate blank by the food chain: secondary consumer, detritivore, first trophic level, tertiary consumer

5. What do the arrows represent? _____

6. Why are there no producers in this food chain? _____

7. If the worm stores 50 J of energy, how much energy does the lizard receive by eating the worm? _____

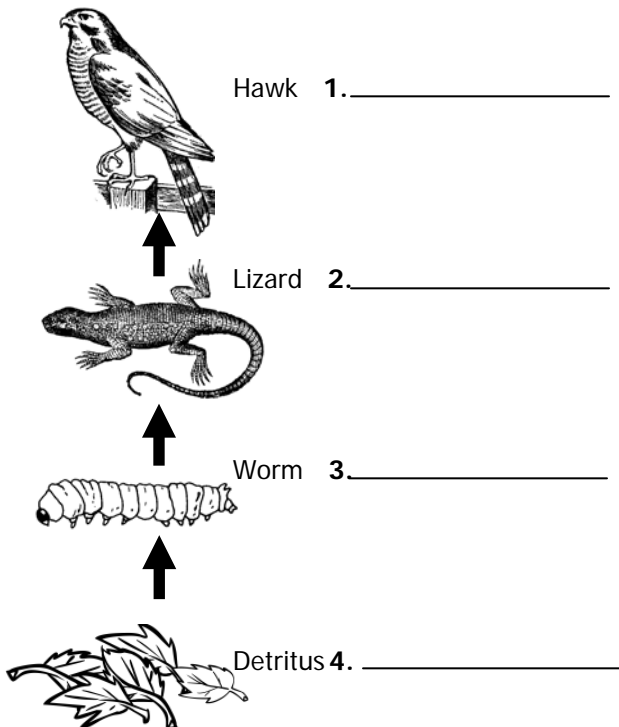

8. Why are food chains usually no more than 4 organisms long? _____

9. What is the role of a decomposer? _____

10. What is detritus? _____

RISD Curriculum & Instruction
2012-2013

Food Chain Performance Assessment

1-4. Place the following key words on the appropriate blank by the food chain: Secondary consumer, detritivore, first trophic level, tertiary consumer

5. What do the arrows represent? _____

6. Why are there no producers in this food chain? _____

7. If the worm stores 50 J of energy, how much energy does the lizard receive by eating the worm? _____

8. Why are food chains usually no more than 4 organisms long? _____

9. What is the role of a decomposer? _____

10. What is detritus? _____

RISD Curriculum & Instruction
2012-2013